

Rate for CMA	Number of CTs
≥ 30.0%	(34)
20.0% to < 30.0%	(103)
10.0% to < 20.0%	(240)
< 10.0%	(75)
Not available	(5)
Concept partially applicable	(12)
Delta Census subdivision

1. For a one-person household, the after-tax low-income measure (LIM-AT) is $19,460. For larger households, this amount is adjusted upward, multiplying by the square root of household size.

See map 1

Vancouver CMA

Percentage of the population below after-tax low-income measure¹ in 2010 by 2011 census tract (CT)

Source: Statistics Canada, 2011 National Household Survey, Geography Division, 2013.